Mieczysław Mokrzycki

ARCHIEPISCOPUS
METROPOLITA LEOPOLIENSIS LATINORUM

Reverend Father Lawrence!
Dear Brothers and Sisters of Holy Trinity Church in Cookstown!

Saint John Paul II said: “There are times when we are faced with truths for which there are no words”.

That is precisely the time today. There are no words to express the truth of what is happening before our eyes. There are no words to express gratitude for goodness and solidarity. There is, however, one word - THANK YOU!

It is this word that I would like to use to express my gratitude for the donation made to the Archdiocese of Lviv in this very difficult time of war. I am doing it in my own name and in the name of all those suffering the difficulties caused by war here in our Country.

May the Good Lord bless you and may the Virgin Mary, the Beautiful Star of the City of Lviv, intercede for you.
